

TODAY AT AMUAY BAY

A 3-day meeting was begun over the past week-end to permit Western Venezuela syndicates to discuss the content of a presentation by Fedepetrol on the proposed collective contract. Both SUCEP and STOP sent delegations from this area. The former included five officers who are Amuay employees while the latter included one officer who is an Amuay employee.

Revalidation of Engineering Degrees

The first phase of this activity has been completed now that all authorizations to obtain necessary documents have been sent to Caracas for forwarding to Creole-New York. Dr. Baudillo Gonzalez Duran, who has been on loan from Engineering to Industrial Relations, to assist in the first phase, has returned to his regular assignment upon completion of the initial work in the revalidation program.

As of Monday, July 13th, the Operational and Mechanical teams had completed 753,000 man-hours without a disabling injury leaving 26 more days required to reach the million man-hour goal in the current Safety Contest.

A total of 127 students received 6th Grade graduation diplomas at these exercises held at the school on July 11th for the boy graduates, and on the 12th for the girl graduates. The Refinery was officially represented at each program with the Manager assisting the presentation of the special awards to the boys, and Assistant Manager doing likewise for the girls. Commencement addresses at the two exercises were given by refinery employees.

A one-week training course patterned on the "case study" approach started July 12th at the Miranda Hotel in Coro with opening welcome and remarks by the Manager. Approximately 13 employees are attending, including one from the Western Division. The course will end at noon Saturday on July 18th and is being directed by the Amuay Training Section Supervisor.

The May issue of the magazine "Nosotros" was received and distributed to the workers at their job sites on Wednesday, July 8th.

The Bowling Championship Tournament for the State of Falcón was kicked off by the Manager on Saturday, July 11th. Most of the players in the six teams are Creole employees. The games will be played both at the Judibana and Adaro Clubs.

The Municipal Council of Los Taques has announced that they are working on an estimate of the cost of erecting the water tank that is to be donated to the Council by Creole and as soon as approval is received from the State Government, work will commence. The Council has also announced that they are considering the purchase of a surplus generator from the Refinery.

In an effort to encourage more workers to purchase at the CADA supermarket, a special section known as "Seccion Comisariato" has been established in the supermarket. 37 of the items sold in the Amuay Commissary are now being merchandised by CADA in their new section. Nine additional convenio items are sold in other parts of the supermarket. Of the 46 items merchandised, approximately two-thirds are sold at prices equal to, or slightly less than, the company commissary prices. The six items not carried by CADA are safety shoes and articles of clothing which the supermarket does not handle.

The Government announced its decision to require import permits for certain products included in List No 1 of its Trade Agreement with the U. S. The Foreign Affairs Minister explained: (1) that this is an emergency measure, and should not be considered as a revision of the treaty; (2) that agreement had been reached with the U. S. Department of State for the immediate initiation of a revision of the Agreement and (3) that Venezuela hopes to achieve definite results with regard to such revision in the very near future. Items for which import permits will now be required are the following: cigarettes; copper, bronze and brass wire and cable; chick-peas, peas, lentils and lima beans; hams; podded vegetables (except kidney and black beans); vegetable soups; sauches and relishes (except those with tomatoes as principal component); artichokes, sauerkraut, asparagus, Brussels sprouts and celery; special baby foods; sterilized fruit juices; wheat flour; and prepared milk items. Tobacco, which is not included on List No 1, will also require import permits.

Until such time as quotas can be established for each item, monthly permits will be granted according to the average volume of the product imported during the previous year. According to official statements, quantity controls will be established under a broad criterion in order not to affect the cost of living and in order to provide imports to offset any deficiency on the part of Venezuelan industry in supplying demand. It was also stated that there will be no drastic cutback of the items affected, but that imports would be progressively reduced as the quality, quantity, and prices of the national products can be adjusted to the needs of the country.

A dedication ceremony initiated last week's teenage activity where at the Judibana Stadium the Accounting, Marine, Volunteer Firemen, and Students gathered for the Creole-sponsored softball series. Two gold-plated cups will go to the winners and the runners-up; the games should be interesting as the summer progresses and the competition gets harder. Unfortunately, the teenage team hasn't done very well and they have lost their two games with the Marine and Accounting teams by a wide margin. There was a practice session Thursday afternoon, and there will probably be a lot more in the next couple of days.

Tuesday, Diane Wynne gave a barbecue-dance for Susie Nystrom before she left for the States. The meat was so good that Butch Martin was inspired to throw five aces while playing "Liar's Dice" and consequently had a hard time getting anyone to believe him! The usual Teen Canteen party followed Wednesday, and Friday evening found most of the teenagers at the home of the Walkers at a party given by Graciella Rodriguez. The food was great and the punch was spiced with all kinds of fruits and berries and things. Marshall Gray returned from his three-day trip to Maracaibo and back and was all set for another one to Puerto La Cruz.

Karen Aertker was met at the airport by most of her old friends after she arrived from Caracas to spend a week with Virginia Albright. An added "jag" was that of watching the pilot try and land the plane on the left wheel alone and then take off in as short a stretch as possible. That evening most of the summer crowd were at the Golf Club square dancing to Mr. Reynold's and his electric megaphone.

As windy as Sunday was, a large crowd of enthusiastic boys and girls showed up at the decks Sunday morning to go fishing on the Judibana. Not much was caught, but all kinds of things happened to make the trip one of the wierdest yet. Sandy and Candy Spain were hestesses at their Hollywood party at El Rancho the same Sunday, and among the many famous personalities that graced Amuay were Jayne Mansfield, Cyd Charisse, Auntie Mame, Grace Kelley, Matt Dillon, Wyatt Earp, Matt Dillon, Wyatt Earp, Matt Dillon, Wyatt Earp, and "The Mess". One of the big surprises was the live music provided by a quartet consisting of two guitars, maracas, and a big band drum - all did very well.

While I was writing this article, I was asked to include the following poem or reply to Garfield by a teenager who wishes to be known only as "The Fang". Since "The Fang" was pretty forceful about the whole thing and what with all this rabies epidemic in camp, I quickly yielded.

Here it is:

To Our Everlovin' Buddy, Garfield

(Next Column)

Your witty poems that grace the page
of Amuay's Pelicano

Are thought by some to take a prize
And others pure tomato.

We've heard you often rant and rave
On themes both far and wide

From how Amuay teenagers do behave
To child psychology applied.

I often wonder who you are

And what is your urge to write?

Is it your wife that's troubling you,
And have you had a fight?

Perhaps you've done this on a bet
Or do you write a lover?

Are you sure this is the only way,
There isn't any other?

The day will come when you've gone too far
And will have overstepped our line,

It will probably be on us again
On one of our many "crimes".

But "The Fang" is alert and on the prowl
Guarding our hard-earned fame,

And the night that we meet beside the house
Garfield will be only a name.

Signed,
THE FANG

Dear Editor: We notice that it was stated in a recent PELICAN that "you had a lot of fun buying tickets." Want to die laughing? I know where you can buy a bulldozer for Bs 90,000.00..... Dolly Kelleway was really up in the air one Sunday. She checked up on her unsuspecting esposo at 1000 feet. He was calmly washing the car on the front lawn when she flew over. You just have to be careful these days, Jack.....The last time accident occurring when an administrative worker slipped and fractured his knee brings forth the dangers of "white-collar jobs". More than one guy has broken his finger when he didn't get his hands out of the cash drawer fast enough.....And as for the notice of what to do when attacked by a rabid dog or cat, Thanks, but what do we do when attacked by an irate wife? No hay remedio. We thank Leon Terrel for his little note some time back referring to the revival of certain aspects of the community news sheet. We would like to see you again, old buddy.....To Susie Nystrom and her note about the "small Couples Party" - We gather from that that no one taller than five feet could attend - right? And from what we hear, Peggy and Jerry Hammond's little boy "Sailor David" is quite an observant little lad. - Hasta la pizza.

KAR. A. KENO

" YO PIENSO EN TI "

Yo pienso en tí; tú vives en mi mente;
sola, fija, sin tregua, a toda hora;
aunque tal vez el rostro indiferente
no deje reflejar sobre mi frente
la llama que en silencio me devora.

En mi lóbrega y yerta fantasía
brilla tu imagen apacible y pura,
como el rayo de luz que el sol envía
al través de una bóveda sombría
al roto mármol de una sepultura.

Gallado, inerte, en estupor profundo,
mi corazón se embarga y se enajena
y allá en su centro vibra moribundo cuando entre el vano estrépito del mundo la melodía de tu nombre suena.

Sin lucha, sin afán y sin lamento,
sin agitarme en ciego frenesí,
sin proferir un solo, un leve acento,
las largas horas de la noche cuento
! y pienso en tí!
