MAJADERIAS

¡ QUE CADA QUIEN LLEVE SU DISFRAS Y SU BOTELLA...

Y QUE VENGA LA PACHANGA !

Por Nicofirio

COMENZANDO este fin de semana tendremos la clásica presencia del Dios Momo, espíritu burlón del Carnaval. Este año hay verdaderamente un gran entusiasmo para la celebración de estas fiestas en Caracas, donde en diferentes sitios animarán Aldemaro Romero, Chucó Sanoja, Billo Frómeta, Lucho Mecedo, Alberto Muñoz, Los Melódicos, Víctor Piñero, y otras orquestas... EL SABADO 3 y el martes 6 habrá baile de disfraces en el Club Judibana. Los Conjuntos Siboney y Sonora Cristal han prometido hacerlo mejor esta vez... SI FUERAMOS a Caracas iríamos a "guitarle el chaquetón" a Kiko Mendive... POR AQUI las fiestas del Dios Momo alguna vez han sido buenas... NO SE tiene noticia de que ninguna agrupación de prestigio venga a animar nuestros esqueletos este año... PARA los que gustan del carnaval, bien podrían organizarse "movidas" colectivas en las casas... donde no haya perros. Que cada quien lleve su disfras y su botella y 'que venga la pachanga'. Me ofrezco con una colección de discos bailables de "espanto y brinco". No los presto a domicilio, ni los alquilo ni los vendo, naturalmente. La única condición es que yo mismo me encargaría de manejar el "pick-up"... DE PASO en Amuay por un mes, Luis Altuna. Sigue tan cordial y tan bizco como siempre... A M.T., director de "El Pelícano", lo operaron esta semana de la lengua. Rectificamos: de amigdalitis... BUENA película "La Verdad" en el Auto-Cine el sábado pasado. Pero películas como éstas necesitan más atractiva promoción. Bien llevada la propaganda, películas como "La Verdad" dan mejor recaudación que "El Mundo de Noche", por ejemplo... HORACIO Barajas pegó la semana pasada, a medias con Gumersindo Sánchez, un cuadrito con cinco caballos ganadores. Piensan seguir con la Creole, porque solamente cobraron 60 bolívares entre los dos... Y ESTAS píldoras, recopiladas por Velluto, para cerrar: SI el perro hablara, es muy posible que no nos dirigiera la palabra... NUNCA desconfiamos lo suficiente de los incapaces. 'Son capaces de todo'... A LOS ZANCUDOS debemos considerarlos como de la familia. No en balde llevan nuestra propia sangre... HAY DOS clases de tonterías: las que son necesarias y las que no deben hacerse. Por ejemplo: casarse por segunda vez...

NOTA DEL EDITOR

Pedimos excusas a nuestros lectores por lo "pasmado" que saldrá 'El Pelícano' de esta semana. Esto se debe a la imposibilidad de introducir todo el papeleo, maquina de escribir, 'Duplimat', lapices, borradores, diccionarios etc. al Hospital Sagrada Familia particularmente en la P. M. del dia martes. Fue necesario prepararlo con el material recibido hasta las 9:00 P.M. del lunes.

En esta edición publicamos un reportaje en Inglés por LaRita Mixon acerca de su reciente visita al Parador Turístico en la Sierra de San Luis. Por los motivos ya aludidos no tuvimos tiempo suficiente para (mal)traducirlo. Nuestro corresponsal nos asegura que el viaje de Coro dura 1½ horas; que los que desean descansar deben ir los sábados, contando con la llegada de los 'turistas' el domingo; pueden hacer reservaciones por intermedio del Sr. Humberto Tizzani del Franco-Italiano, Mercado Público en Punto Fijo (Teléfono N° 2042); hay seis cuartos dobles a Bs 30,00 diarios con cargos adicionales de Bs 10,00 por cada camo o cuna extra. Y, ES BUENO, VALE....

THE PELICAN TRAVEL BUREAU NEWS:

Editor's Note - Having read about pioneer residents' expeditions via burro to Curimagua, Rita Mixon tells of a contemporary traveler's weekend outing (sin burro) to the orange growing region in the mountains south of Coro.

The Parador Turistico, the State hotel built by the Government of Falcón, was opened to guests the past week (TWO WEEKS AGO) and we made the trip there in less than three hours Saturday. It is a fine one day outing, but we made reservations ahead for Saturday night and arrived there in about a 55-60 degree cloud bank. It reminded us of the first cool spell in October and autumn fogs in Mississippi. The dense vegetation could be seen only in dark silhouette and the moisture was condensing rapidly on ground, trees and floors.

We did not get to see the big wide-angle view of northern Falcón, Coro, and the desert of Paraguaná until the clouds drifted away on Sunday noon, however we went down into the town of Curimagua, lower in the valley than the hotel's 4500 feet, which was in a sunny haze. We also got peeks through the clouds of the orange-growing slopes and valleys.

The road from Coro to Curimagua has been improved in most places and is asphalted 99 per cent of the way. In many places the hair raising curves have been pushed in here and extended a little there and supported by concrete blocks and cement. Work is in progress on filling out shoulders on the sheer, steep drops. Progress has been made in putting concrete posts on the edge of three or four banks.

1½ hours from Coro is a safe allowance for the trip; however a bus excursion of bank employees arrived at 7:15 a.m., Sunday, having left Punto Fijo at 5:00 a.m.

The hotel has six double rooms and was built by the State Government. It is the concession now of Mr. and Mrs. Humberto Tizzani, who can be reached at Franco-Italiano, Municipal Market-Punto Fijo or at Telephone N° 2042 (CANTV).

The regular foods are served and we also ate roasted chivo and conejo del cazador. We saw people taking pictures of the fire in the fireplace, but we enjoyed drying wood for it, stirring the coals and looking at it from a chaise lounge. (The new furniture is the product of the classes of the Escuela Industrial in Coro).

Raincoats, knit fancy pants and heavy sweaters and boots are attire both for the lodge room and for tramping in the forests outside where bird of paradise plants and orchids intersperse vines and trees. The only other overnight guests were the Karel

Swarts of Shell-Cardón. The order of events we observed while we were there, and what will probably be the future pattern, is: Saturdays will be for resting guests, Sundays for Twisting and "Turisters".

We tried to locate the people who we had been told had horses for riding, but were unable to corner the right cowboy. We were directed to a trapiche by one person and ended up high on a bald windy mountain in a deserted panela mill, a real relic of past days. In Curimagua we were offered oranges at tres lochas, grapefruti at 75 centimos a dozen, and saw sugar cane, coffee, guayabanas, and several good varieties of roses growing all about. The local women root plants in little tin cans to take to the Coro market and you may inquire at almost any little house for pink hibiscus, coleus, crotos, and fruit trees, prendidos.

The turn-off to the hotel is identified by a Radio Caracas TV tower sign on the Coro-Barquisimeto highway. A few minutes hike up the hill from the hotel is Creole's communications system repeater station with saucer-like reflectors sitting atop the mountain, and just a stone's throw away are the microwave antennae of the Federal Telephone Company.

For those who like an informal atmosphere the new hotel will fill a vacant weekend very comfortably. It will employ a few people from Curimagua, encourage tourism, and serve as a model for similar projects in other states.

Luxury seekers should stick to a Statler or Maracay or stay in Judibana with a man-made 55 degrees. We are not nature worshippers at all but we think most of you who haven't already been up there would enjoy it.

What's a Brownie?

The little girl who lives next door, the pert seven-year-old who proudly wears her Brownie uniform and Brownie cap to her Girl Scout meetings.

Brownies got their name from the legendary British sprites who did good deeds at night. Our Girl Scout Brownies are, of course, safely tucked away in bed at night, so they do their good deeds during the day.

Service to home and to the community is included among the 11 fields of Scouting activities in which the Brownies have regularly engaged since the establishment of the present Brownie program for girls aged seven through nine in 1926. The 11 fields of activities are: arts and crafts, literature and dramatics, music and dancing, community life, international friendship, nature, out-of-doors, agriculture, health and safety, homemaking, and sports and games.

As part of their service to others, Brownies learn to care for younger brothers and sisters and to help their mothers in simple household tasks. As a part of their arts and crafts, they make baskets, scrapbooks and Christmas decorations as gifts for hospitalized children.

They learn about other countries, the different costumes, music and dances; they study phrases in other languages as a preparation for understanding their sisters in other countries.

Like their older sister Scouts, Brownies are governed by a code of honor. On becoming a Scout, a Brownie promises "to do my best to love God and my country, and to help other people every day, especially those at home."

On Girl Scout Sunday, March 11, you will see brown-clad youngsters attending the church of their choice with their troop or their family. On March 12, they will join almost 3½ million Girl Scouts, both girls and adults, in celebrating the 50th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouting by Juliette Low in 1912. And during the rest of the week, they will be much in evidence, going about their Brownie business like the kindly British sprites who inspired their name.

Economy Class (One engine) - Luchetti sported a fine piece of workmanship in his re-modeled Simplex Kart. Reedy was able to squeeze by Aubrey in the two single engine races. These races were run concurrently with two of the performance class races.

Performance Class (Two engines) - In the first race, Penessi lead-footed around the turn at the end of the straightaway and bumped Cardwell into second place. Cardwell stayed out of bumping range to take the second and third races with his white and blue Simplex. Gilbert pulled away like a rocket in the fourth race, but a chain dropped to rob him of the lead. Trahan then followed the leading Penessi for several hot laps. In spite of several good tries, Trahan was not able to bump Penessi hard enough to gain the lead.

Que es una Alita?

La niña que vive en la casa de al lado, con sus 7 años, luciendo orgullosa su uniforme y su gorra en las reuniones de las Niñas Exploradoras.

Las Alitas recibieron su nombre ("Brownies" les dicen en inglés) del legendario duende inglés que hace buenas acciones por la noche. Nuestras Alitas están, naturalmente, confortable y seguramente metidas en cama por la noche, por lo tanto hacen sus buenas obras durante el día.

Servir al hogar y a la comunidad es solamente una de las numerosas actividades realizadas por las "Brownies" desde 1926 cuando fue establecido el programa para niñas de 7 a 9 años de edad. Literatura, Arte (y artesanía), Música y Baile, Amistad Internacional, Drama, Estudios de la Naturaleza, Agricultura, Salubridad y Seguridad, Oficios del Hogar, y Deportes y Juegos son otras actividades del programa.

Aprenden a cuidar a sus hermanitos y a ayudar a sus madres en tareas rutinarias del hogar. Hacen cestas, libretas para anotaciones y decorados Navideños como regalos para niños hospitalizados. Para facilitar el mutuo entendimiento con sus "hermanas" en otros países estudian su 'folklore', música, bailes y ropa típica, así como varias frases en otros idiomas.

Como sus 'hermanas mayores', las Guias, las Alitas se someten a un Código de Honor. Al ingresar a las filas de las Niñas Exploradoras, prometen "hacer lo mejor posible, amar A Dios y a Mi Patria, y ayudar a otras personas todos los días, especialmente en casa".

El próximo domingo, 11 de marzo, asistirán uniformadas a servicios religiosos con su Tropa o con su familia. El dia siguiente, junto con casi 3½ millones de Niñas Exploradoras, menores y adultos, celebrarán el 50º aniversario de la fundación de la institución por Juliette Low en 1912. Y durante el resto de la semana "BROWNIE BUSINESS AS USUAL".

STATIONS OF THE CROSS will be held in English every Friday during Lent at 4:45 PM for children and adults. This will probably be the only regular devotion in English during the Lenten Season.
